Spacious 4 bedroom home offering flexible living areas and strong long-term potential in Northwood Manor. The functional layout includes a bonus room ideal for a home office, second living area, or creative space, plus a primary suite with private access to the back deck for easy indoor-outdoor living. Brick accent walls add character, and large windows bring in natural light throughout. Located in a non-flood zone, this property adds an extra layer of confidence for homeowners and investors alike. Priced to reflect cosmetic updates, it presents a great opportunity to personalize finishes and build equity, while the 4 bedroom layout also offers strong rental appeal for those considering a future landlord option. Just minutes from Interstate 59 and Little York, the area continues to see growth with expanding retail, entertainment, and convenient access to major grocery stores.
